

Supervising Cases of Child Sexual Abuse for Managers

This two-day training is designed specifically for managers or supervisors who are supporting staff with cases involving child sexual abuse

Explore prevalence, myths and misconceptions, and the impact of CSA
Understand how the impact of CSA may affect intervention work
Identify how the grooming process affects families and professionals
Improve confidence in supervising staff working with CSA

This programme runs across two days. Day one is an online training day and day two is face to face. All training runs from 10am - 4pm.

Training dates are:

- Tues 27th Feb & Thurs 7th Mar 2024
Online
- Tues 5th Mar & Tues 12th Mar 2024
Face to face
- Wed 13th Mar & Wed 20th Mar 2024
Online
- Tues 19th Mar & Tues 26th Mar 2024
Face to face

To book your place:

Click here

For any questions please speak to your designated ICB training lead